New Ammunition Dump at B'd Saarow

In early August 1952, construction was started on a new ammunition depot, about 1.5 x 1.5 km, on the premises of the former German balloon barrage unit about 2.5 km southeast of Bad Saarow. [redacted] 15 large concrete bunkers, 24 x 12 meters, which cost 26,000 eastmarks each, and 4 small bunkers, 12 x 8 meters, which cost 11,000 eastmarks each. The construction of the bunkers, which was supervised by Lieutenant Colonel Cherikov (fnu), was earmarked for completion by the end of October 1952. The depot was connected with Bad Saarow by a spur track and was to be provided with small-gauge rails between the bunkers. Old barracks installations and halls in the depot area were being reconditioned.
